Dear Parents,

As the school year ends, each rising 4th grade student is asked to read two of the following books during the summer vacation. These books will be reviewed during the first three weeks of the 2010-2011 school year with class projects, writing assignments, or discussions.

Easy:

Mr. Popper's Penguins by Richard Atwater
Chester Cricket's Pigeon Ride by George Selden

Average:

Pippi Longstockings by Astrid Lindgren
Dear Mr. Henshaw by Beverly Cleary

Challenging:

A Horse and His Boy by C. S. Lewis
Chester Cricket's New Home by George Selden

Of course, you and your child may enjoy sharing any number of other fine literature selections. I trust that during the summer months you and your child will find the time to continue reading and discussing books together.

Sincerely

Fourth Grade Teachers
